Our Distillery

Founded in 1947 on a site with a brewing heritage dating back to 1488. Our distillery proudly sits in the village of Blackford, at the gateway to the Scottish Highlands.

We're one of only a handful of distilleries to have a Cooperage and Bottling Plant onsite, allowing us full control over the whisky-making process from grain to glass.

The Whisky

After an initial maturation in first-fill bourbon barrels, Tullibardine 228 is then finished for up to 12 months in 228 litre Pinot Noir red wine casks, giving it a deep auburn hue.

Tasting notes

Nose: Red cherries and vanilla, with hints of chocolate and rose water.

Taste: The rich chocolate from the nose develops further with hints of red summer fruits including cherries and raspberries.

Finish: More chocolate and a sweet, spicy lingering finish.

Food pairing: Dark chocolate.

ABV: 43%

Spicy, full-bodied and fruity.
