Virgin Chinkapin Oak - PEATED

Freshly charred and toasted, these custom made Chinkapin, or Quercus Muehlenbergii, American White Oak casks are a type of Oak native to Central and Eastern North America.

The fresh charring of the cask brings a rich color and flavour early on in the maturation process and the high toast caramelises the natural sugars in the wood. Expect sweet toffee and butterscotch on the nose; with vibrant dark fruit flavors and deep, rich colors at a young age.

Natural cask strength, non-chill filtered, natural colour.

Flavour Profile:
toffee, Scottish tablet
sweet ginger, heather honey
dark fruits, red currants, malted granary bread, lingering wood smoke.

Distilled, matured, bottled and shipped directly from the Isle of Raasay.
Isle of Raasay population: 161 people.

Bordeaux Red Wine - PEATED

Stained red on the outside, these high quality ex-Bordeaux red wine casks are delivered fresh to the island from the château in South West France.

In the first few months of maturation, our spirit develops a pink hue in these casks (which turns into a deeper, darker red).

Bold flavours and fruity notes develop in the spirit including dried fruits, sultana, grape, Christmas cake and bread pudding.

Natural cask strength, non-chill filtered, natural colour.

Flavour Profile:
savory spice, cinnamon
cherries, black grapes,
sandalwood, a hint of saltiness,
BBQ spare ribs.

Distilled, matured, bottled and shipped directly from the Isle of Raasay.
Isle of Raasay population: 161 people.

American Rye - PEATED

These American ex-Rye Whiskey casks are from Woodford Reserve Distillery, KY where they use 53% Rye in their mash bill. The flavors emulate history's original Rye whiskies with strong, peppery, spicy flavors in a sea of fruit and butterscotch.

These casks develop interesting pepper, spice, and butterscotch flavors in our whisky.

Natural cask strength, non-chill filtered, natural colour.

Flavour Profile:
black pepper, butterscotch,
sweet spice, vanilla,
wood smoke.

Distilled, matured, bottled and shipped directly from the Isle of Raasay.
Isle of Raasay population: 161 people.
